Dear Folks:

Arrived in camp AWOH as usual, but no repar cussions. Everything has been smoothed over.

The outfit is rife with rumors as to what and what not the Division is going to do. However, nothing has happened so far. I imagine that all the puts will be leaving in about six weeks, and we will start from scratch again.

Mon, Tues & Wed I got nailed, and had to work until 2330 each night. Last night, I went out on a Bu problem and got the sum total of 2 hrs sleep.

I'm tired, so I'll make this letter short. Is there any news from Vic yet? If not, let me know what develops

Love —

Bruce
